Did You Know: It was 46 years ago, September 7, 1963, that Trout Unlimited held its First Annual National Convention at the Allenberry Resort on the fabled Yellow Breeches near the picturesque town of Boiling Spring, PA. PFFMA has the transcripts from that first convention.

Many of the issues discussed at this first national convention are still with us today—need for stream improvement, special regulations, wild trout versus hatchery or “artificial trout”, as some called them, hooking mortality, barbless hooks, the legitimate role of TU, the role of science and the need for political action, emphasis on sport rather than harvest, the aesthetic value of trout fishing, fishing for fun and throughout, an emphasis on fly-fishing.

Did You Know: The Yellow Breeches Creek in the last century (and presumably always) has been noted for its water quality and aquatic life. The fish are only part of the system of fauna that includes 150 kinds of birds, reptiles, amphibians and mammals.

Raffle Drawings:

Registration and lunch fees for Heritage Day are intended to just cover the costs for this event.

The only fundraising efforts during Heritage Day are great bucket raffle and a fun Fish Race. Please consider supporting the efforts of the PFFMA by purchasing raffle tickets or bidding at the auction in the Registration Area.

There are two great fundraising raffles:

1. Bucket Raffle: Many wonderful prizes have been donated by the vendors and other supporters of the PFFMA. The raffle drawing will be at noon. Check the Registration Area anytime after noon to see if you won (must claim prize by 4pm)
1 for $2 - 4 for $5 - 10 for $10

2. Rubber Fish Race: $500 cash prize! You may have heard of Rubber Ducky Races. We, of course, are using FISH!

Buy your $10 raffle ticket for great odds of winning the $500 cash prize! The “Swim” will take place streamside in the Yellow Breeches (downstream of the pavilion) at 12:30.

Buy your ticket(s) and come cheer for your fish at the finish line! (You do not have to be present to win.)
